

Francis M. Valeriote

Member of Parliament for Guelph

May 18, 2013.
Guelph

Diana Degan,
35 Brady Lane,
Guelph, Ontario.
N1L 1A4

Dear Ms. Degan:

It is with immense pride that I extend my sincere congratulations honouring your achievements as a Woman of Distinction.

Being nominated for such a distinguished award is real acknowledgement of our genuine appreciation for your personal accomplishments and the significant, invaluable and selfless contributions you make daily in advancing the wellbeing of our community.

As a Women of Distinction Award winner, it is clear to your peers and your community around you that your outstanding achievements are deserving of deeper recognition.

You are a strong and invaluable role model for women of all ages throughout our city and Guelph is very fortunate to benefit from the encouraging influence you have had on all of those around you. I am truly grateful for your outstanding and compassionate service to our community.

As Member of Parliament for Guelph, I again congratulate you on receiving the recognition you deserve.

Warmest Regards,

Frank Valeriote
Member of Parliament-Guelph